Northwestern Institute of Psychiatry and Pennsylvania State Education Association. Case 4-CA-25471-2

March 24, 1997

DECISION AND ORDER

BY CHAIRMAN GOULD AND MEMBERS FOX AND HIGGINS

Pursuant to a charge filed on November 21, 1996, the General Counsel of the National Labor Relations Board issued a complaint on January 10, 1997, alleging that the Respondent has violated Section 8(a)(5) and (1) of the National Labor Relations Act by refusing the Union's request to bargain following the Union's certification in Case 4-RC-18333. (Official notice is taken of the "record" in the representation proceeding as defined in the Board's Rules and Regulations, Secs. 102.68 and 102.69(g); Frontier Hotel, 265 NLRB 343 (1982).) The Respondent filed an answer admitting in part and denying in part the allegations in the complaint.

On February 18, 1997, the General Counsel filed a Motion for Summary Judgment. On February 19, 1997, the Board issued an order transferring the proceeding to the Board and a Notice to Show Cause why the motion should not be granted. The Respondent did not file a response.

Ruling on Motion for Summary Judgment

In its answer the Respondent admits its refusal to bargain but attacks the validity of the certification on the basis of the Board's determination in the representation proceeding that a number of nurses in the unit are not statutory supervisors.

All representation issues raised by the Respondent were or could have been litigated in the prior representation proceeding. The Respondent does not offer to adduce at a hearing any newly discovered and previously unavailable evidence, nor does it allege any special circumstances that would require the Board to reexamine the decision made in the representation proceeding. We therefore find that the Respondent has not raised any representation issue that is properly litigable in this unfair labor practice proceeding.¹ See Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co. v. NLRB, 313 U.S. 146, 162

¹Member Higgins did not participate in the representation case and expresses no view on the merits of that decision. He agrees, however, that the Respondent has not raised any issue that is properly litigable before the Board in this unfair labor practice proceeding.

(1941). Accordingly, we grant the Motion for Summary Judgment.

On the entire record, the Board makes the following

FINDINGS OF FACT

I. JURISDICTION

At all material times, the Respondent, a Delaware corporation, with a facility in Fort Washington, Pennsylvania, has been engaged in the operation of a mental health treatment facility. During the 12-month period preceding the issuance of the complaint, the Respondent, in conducting its business operations described above, received gross revenues in excess of $250,000, and purchased and received goods valued at in excess of $50,000 directly from points outside the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. We find that the Respondent is an employer engaged in commerce within the meaning of Section 2(6) and (7) of the Act and that the Union is a labor organization within the meaning of Section 2(5) of the Act.

II. ALLEGED UNFAIR LABOR PRACTICES

A. The Certification

Following the election held on May 26, 1994, the Union was certified on November 1, 1996, as the exclusive collective-bargaining representative of the employees in the following appropriate unit:

All regular full-time and regular part-time nurses employed by Respondent as staff registered nurses, graduate nurses pending board licensure as registered nurse or nursing care coordinators at Northwestern Institute of Psychiatry's Hospital at 450 Bethlehem Pike, Fort Washington, Pennsylvania, excluding all on-call/per diem registered nurses, office clerical employees, technical employees, all other professional and non-professional employees, and guards and supervisors as defined in the Act.

The Union continues to be the exclusive representative under Section 9(a) of the Act.

B. Refusal to Bargain

Since November 18, 1996, the Union has requested the Respondent to bargain, and, since November 19, 1996, the Respondent has refused. We find that this refusal constitutes an unlawful refusal to bargain in violation of Section 8(a)(5) and (1) of the Act.

CONCLUSION OF LAW

By refusing on and after November 19, 1996, to bargain with the Union as the exclusive collective-bargaining representative of employees in the appropriate unit, the Respondent has engaged in unfair labor practices affecting commerce within the meaning of Section 8(a)(5) and (1) and Section 2(6) and (7) of the Act.

REMEDY

Having found that the Respondent has violated Section 8(a)(5) and (1) of the Act, we shall order it to cease and desist, to bargain on request with the Union, and, if an understanding is reached, to embody the understanding in a signed agreement.

To ensure that the employees are accorded the services of their selected bargaining agent for the period provided by the law, we shall construe the initial period of the certification as beginning the date the Respondent begins to bargain in good faith with the Union. Mar-Jac Poultry Co., 136 NLRB 785 (1962); Lamar Hotel, 140 NLRB 226, 229 (1962), enfd. 328 F.2d 600 (5th Cir. 1964), cert. denied 379 U.S. 817 (1964); Burnett Construction Co., 149 NLRB 1419, 1421 (1964), enfd. 350 F.2d 57 (10th Cir. 1965).

ORDER

The National Labor Relations Board orders that the Respondent, Northwestern Institute of Psychiatry, Fort Washington, Pennsylvania, its officers, agents, successors, and assigns, shall

1. Cease and desist from

(a) Refusing to bargain with Pennsylvania State Education Association, as the exclusive bargaining representative of the employees in the bargaining unit.

(b) Within 14 days after service by the Region, post at its facility in Fort Washington, Pennsylvania, copies of the attached notice marked "Appendix."² Copies of the notice, on forms provided by the Regional Director for Region 4 after being signed by the Respondent's authorized representative, shall be posted by the Respondent and maintained for 60 consecutive days in conspicuous places including all places where notices to employees are customarily posted. Reasonable steps shall be taken by the Respondent to ensure that the notices are not altered, defaced, or covered by any other material. In the event that, during the pendency of these proceedings, the Respondent has gone out of business or closed the facility involved in these proceedings, the Respondent shall duplicate and mail, at its own expense, a copy of the notice to all current employees and former employees employed by the Respondent at any time since November 21, 1996.

(c) Within 21 days after service by the Region, file with the Regional Director a sworn certification of a responsible official on a form provided by the Region attesting to the steps that the Respondent has taken to comply.
